Dear Madam:-

We thank you for your letter of July 15th in reply to ours of July 10th concerning the claim of $3.10 deducted when paying our invoice of May 9th No.1-S-3027 for $10.02.

Upon checking into the matter we find the one pair of BO7 baseball shoes should have been charged at $5.00 per pair instead of $9.50 per pair so you are really entitled to a credit of $4.60 whereas you only deducted $3.10.

We are enclosing herewith our credit memo of July 28th No.11785 for $4.60 and the difference between this credit and the claim of $3.10, which is $1.50, you can deduct from your next remittance to us.

We are also returning our invoice of May 9th No.1-S-3027 for $10.02, and May 9th No.1-S-3032 for $9.69 which you enclosed with your letter. We trust the matter has now been properly straightened out.

Yours very truly,
